

Pain Points

Delayed or missed diagnosis

Symptoms dismissed or minimized

Siloed care mode (gynecology, endocrinology, dermatology, mental health not coordinated)

Poor mental health support

Generic lifestyle advice only

Over-reliance on lifestyle advice ("lose weight," "eat better") without personalized treatment plans

Absence of policy-backed financial support for PCOS care

No standardized clinical guidelines for long-term PCOS management

Limited time to address multi-system symptoms in one visit